(1) A baby cannot be exposed to a light greater than 100 foot candles for more than 30 seconds at a time. Infants under 6 months may be called to work between 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. or 2:30 and 4:30 p.m.

All minors can be employed between the hours of 5:00 a. m. and 10:00 p. m. (unless a waiver or extension is granted). A minor may work till 12:30 a.m. on all nights-preceding non-school days.

Parents of unaccompanied minors 16 to 18 years, should be sure to assign written medical authorization to a willing adult present on the set.

An Emancipated Minor who has not completed high school requirements still needs 3 hours of school unless the court order specifically exempts him/her from Title 8 of the Education Code. If this is not specifically stated and the minor is under 16, a studio Teacher is still required.

A Minor who has completed high school requirements does not need a Studio Teacher and may be treated as an adult.
